Synopsis:
Nablus, looking for two refugee boys. Lusaka, on a deceiving national celebration, Mazar-e-Sharif, at the Buzkashi field. 3 cinematic postcards about the people of these places in this short documentary.

Press Text:
His projects are taking director Stefan Gieren to crisis regions around the globe. With his camera he explores the places he travels and sends his very personal observations to the recipients of the 3 postcards. An essayistic take to short documentaries.

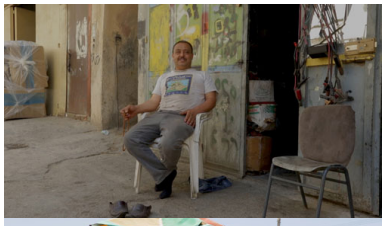

Director's Short CV:
Stefan Gieren has received an Academy Award nomination for his graduation film RAJU along with over 80 international awards for his work.
He creates independent feature films and documentaries in a network of filmmakers and journalists and co-founded an educational TV station in Afghanistan.
